UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

V. $
CASE NO. 1:14-CR-105

BILLY DAN PEAVY

FINDINGS OF FACT AND RECOMMENDATION ON GUILTY PLEA BEFORE THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

By order of the District Court, this matter was referred to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for administration of a guilty plea and allocution under Rules 11 and 32 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Magistrate judges have the statutory authority to conduct a felony guilty plea proceeding as an "additional duty" pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3). United States v. Bolivar-Munoz, 313 F.3d 253, 255 (5th Cir. 2002), cert. denied, 123 S. Ct. 1642 (2003). On October 28, 2014, this cause came before the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for entry of a guilty plea by the defendant on Count One, Count Two and Count Three of the charging Information filed in this cause.

Count One of the Information charges that on or about April 15, 2008, in the Eastern District of Texas. Billy Dan Peavy, defendant, a resident of Silsbee, Texas, did willfully make and subscribe a 2007 Form 1040 United States Individual Income Tax Return, which was verified by a written declaration that it was made under the penalties of perjury and was filed with the Internal Revenue Service, which said tax return the defendant did not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter in that the said tax Form 1040, Line 22, Total Income, was reported as $61,210, whereas, as he then and there well knew and believed, such figure was false as the figure he reported did not include all income from Beech Creek Disposal Inc., (also known as NBC Disposal, Inc.) and Caneyhead Construction, Inc., in violation of Title 26, United States Code, § 7206(1).

Count Two of the Information charges that on or about September 18, 2009, in the Eastern District of Texas, Billy Dan Peavy, defendant, a resident of Silsbee, Texas, did willfully make and subscribe a 2008 Form 1040 United States Individual Income Tax Return, which was verified by a written declaration that it was made under the penalties of perjury and was filed with the Internal Revenue Service, which said tax return the defendant did not believe to be true and correte as to every material matter in that the said tax form 1040, Line 22, Total Income, was reported as $93,893, whereas, as he then and there well knew and believed, such figure was false as the figure he reported did not include all income from Beech Creek Disposal, Inc. (also known as NBC Disposal, Inc.) and Caneyhead Construction, Inc., in violation of Title 26, United States Code, § 7206(1).

Count Three of the Information charges that on or about September 15, 2009, in the Eastern District of Texas, Billy Dan Peavy, defendant, a resident of Silsbee, Texas, did willfully aid and assist in, and procure, counsel, and advise the preparation and presentation to the Internal Revenue Service, of a United States Income Tax Return, Form 1120, U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return for the calendar year 2008 in the name of Beech Creek Disposal, Inc. The return was false and fraudulent as to a material matter, in that the said tax Form 1120, Line 1, Gross Receipts or Sales, was reported as $2,048,993, whereas, as he then and there well knew and believed, such figure was false as the figure reported did not include all income from Beech Creek Disposal, Inc. (also known as NBC Disposal, Inc.), in violation of Title 26, United States Code, Section 7206(2).

Defendant, Billy Dan Peavy, entered a plea of guilty to Count One, Count Two and Count Three of the Information into the record at the hearing.¹

After conducting the proceeding in the form and manner prescribed by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11 the Court finds:

- a. That Defendant, after consultation with counsel of record, has knowingly, freely and voluntarily consented to the administration of the guilty plea in this cause by a United States Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of Texas subject to a final approval and imposition of sentence by the District Court.
- b. That Defendant and the Government have entered into a plea agreement which was disclosed and addressed in open court, entered into the record, and placed under seal.
- c. That Defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea, that Defendant is aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of the plea, and that the plea of guilty is a knowing, voluntary and freely made plea. Upon addressing the Defendant personally in open court, the Court determines that Defendant's plea is voluntary and did not result from force, threats or promises. See FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(b)(2).
- d. That Defendant's knowing, voluntary and freely made plea is supported by an independent factual basis establishing each of the essential elements of the offense and Defendant realizes that his conduct falls within the definition of the crimes charged under Title 26, United States Code, Sections 7206(1) and 7206(2).

¹The Defendant also executed a waiver of indictment which was filed in the record at the guilty plea hearing.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

As factual support for Defendant's guilty plea, the Government presented a factual basis. See Factual Basis and Stipulation. In support, the Government and Defendant stipulated that if this case were to proceed to trial the Government would prove beyond a reasonable doubt, through the sworn testimony of witnesses, including expert witnesses, and through admissible exhibits, each and every essential element of the crimes charged in Count One, Count Two and Count Three of the Information. The parties also stipulated that the Government would prove that the defendant is one and the same person charged in Count One, Count Two and Count Three of the Information and that the events described in the Information occurred in the Eastern District of Texas. The Court incorporates the proffer of evidence described in detail in the factual basis in support of the guilty plea.

Defendant, Billy Dan Peavy, agreed with and stipulated to the evidence presented in the factual basis. Counsel for Defendant and the Government attested to Defendant's competency and capability to enter an informed plea of guilty. The Defendant agreed with the evidence presented by the Government and personally testified that he was entering his guilty plea knowingly, freely and voluntarily.

RECOMMENDED DISPOSITION

IT IS THEREFORE the recommendation of the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge that the District Court accept the Guilty Plea of Defendant which the undersigned determines to be supported by an independent factual basis establishing each of the essential elements of the offenses charged in Count One, Count Two and Count Three of the charging Information on file in this criminal proceeding. The Court also recommends that the District Court accept the plea agreement pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c).

Accordingly, it is further recommended that, Defendant, Billy Dan Peavy, be finally adjudged as guilty of the charged offenses under Title 26, United States Code, Sections 7206(1) and 7206(2).

Defendant is ordered to report to the United States Probation Department for the preparation of a presentence report. At the plea hearing, the Court admonished the Defendant that the District Court may reject the plea and that the District Court can decline to sentence Defendant in accordance with the plea agreement, the federal sentencing guidelines and/or the presentence report because the sentencing guidelines are advisory in nature. The District Court may defer its decision to accept or reject the plea agreement until there has been an opportunity to consider the presentence report. See FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(c). If the Court rejects the plea agreement, the Court will advise Defendant in open court that it is not bound by the plea agreement and Defendant may have the opportunity to withdraw the guilty plea, dependent upon the type of the plea agreement. See id. If the plea agreement is rejected and Defendant still persists in the guilty plea, the disposition of the case may be less favorable to Defendant than that contemplated by the plea agreement. Defendant has the right to allocute before the District Court before imposition of sentence.

OBJECTIONS

Objections must be: (1) specific, (2) in writing, and (3) served and filed within fourteen (14) days after being served with a copy of this report. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).

A party's failure to object bars that party from: (1) entitlement to de novo review by a district judge of proposed findings and recommendations, see Rodriguez v. Bowen, 857 F.2d 275, 276-77 (5th Cir. 1988), and (2) appellate review, except on grounds of plain error of unobjected-to factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the district court, *see Douglass v. United Servs.*Auto. Ass'n., 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996) (en banc). The constitutional safeguards afforded by Congress and the courts require that, when a party takes advantage of his right to object to a magistrate's findings or recommendation, a district judge must exercise its nondelegable authority by considering the actual evidence and not merely by reviewing and blindly adopting the magistrate's report and recommendation. See Hernandez v. Estelle, 711 F.2d 619, 620 (5th Cir. 1983); United States v. Elsoffer, 644 F.2d 357, 359 (5th Cir. 1981) (per curiam).

SIGNED this the 28th day of October, 2014.
